JAPANESE DO NOT

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 9.—Mormon missionaries are meeting with popolar animosity as well as interference by the authorities in Japan. A few days previous to the sailing of the steame Tartar from Yokohama three Mormon missionaries who were holding an open air meeting were mobbed and driven from the villages of the Japanese with whom they were working. In another place the feelings of the people had been so worked un, content of the steams of the people had been so worked un, content of the steams of t place the feelings of the people had been so worked up, contrary to their usual custom, that the police stopped further meetings and gave the missionaries notice to leave for another town, Meli and husoand (Haul) to K. Naaries notice to leave for another town, None of the missionaries who were concerned in either of these incidents were injured.

Long manifestos have recently been issued in Japanese papers addressed to the native population, in which the people are called upon to publicly meet the missionaries. Newspaper comment and general opinion as expressed through the papers, is entirely against the new faith being presented in various portions of the empire. The newspapers declare that the people pay such less attention to this teaching than to the forms of religion represented by various other denominations and add that this is saying a great

NATION'S GUARDIANS

Buffalo. Sept. 9.—Vice President gosevelt gave utterance to a senti ment today that has caught the popu-lar fancy. Just after he had left the Milburn mansion this morning he was accosted by a colored man who was raking a lawn. "Governor, may I shake hands with you?" he said.

you?' he said.

"You certainly may," answered the Vice President, turning quicky and grasping his hand, and, then, as two laborers with dinner pails and tools slipped up, he shook hands with them.

"Ain't you afraid of being shot?" asked one of the men.

"No, sir." he snapped out, "and I hope no official of this country will ever be afraid. You men are our protection, and the foul deed done on the afternoon of Friday will only make you the more vigorous in your

GAGS RELIEVES MARKET.

Washington, September 10. Washington, September 10.—Secte tary Gage today sent the following telegram to F. D. Tappen, chairman of the Clearing House Association of New York city: "Requesting the unavoidable influence upon general business affairs of a continued absorption into the public treasury of revenue beyond expenditure, I have utreated that the continuenal revenue. rected that incoming internal revenue receipts be placed with national bank depositories until a balance with each is reached equal to the par value of the bonds held as security from such depositories. This will divert about $5,000,000 from the Treasury vaults." The following announcement
